

THESSALONIKI 2019

CALL FOR PAPERS

EUROPEAN SENSORY INTEGRATION CONGRESS (ESIC)

Thessaloniki, Greece

June 20 – 22, 2019

Translating Sensory Processing into Quality of Life in Various Environments

Hosted by: The Hellenic Scientific Society for Sensory Integration

Venue: Macedonia Palace Hotel, Thessaloniki.

In an era where people were mostly preoccupied with the architecture of some supposedly disengaged perceptual and rational abilities, Ayres visionary mindset was set on exploring the body's engagement with the world. The Sensory Integration framework is a participatory perspective on humans' activity in daily life. The focus of this year's congress will be on how sensory processing translates into everyday activities and Quality of Life.

The Scientific Committee for the 2019 ESIC meeting invites proposals in English and in Greek from scholars, clinicians and post-graduate students working in any discipline and any field that address the Congress theme.

We invite individual papers, roundtable submissions and posters.

Please submit a proposal of no more than 250 words and a one-page CV to:

esic2019congress@gmail.com

Deadline: Monday, December 10, 2018

Please note:

- The Scientific Committee will accept only one paper proposal per individual.
- Presenters must be able to attend the conference to present their paper in person.
